28 ▼ That's a good idea, maybe we should set up a google docs or something for sharing footage. Or do you mean the video editing? I have little experience there and wouldn't mind sending my footage to someone after today, or maybe we could set up some kind of google docs thing and see if any others also want to donate footage.

One issue I have is that bodycamera is lopsided (attached to a coat), I'm mostly wearing it to try and capture any trouble makers after Pence hopefully makes his move, the crowd footage is just a bonus.

6 ▼ I'm am 100000% positive someone would edit it for you if you gave them the video.

Remember the breakfast burrito? That was edited for free by a Pede here!

4 No, my friend. Hostile takeover of the GOP. Send in the exterminators to fumigate for traitors like Romney, Cheney, Rubio, Graham, Turtle, etc. You know, all the rats, roaches, turtles, and other pestilence.

13 The best time to ~~plant a tree~~ water the tree of liberty was 20 years ago. The second best time is now.

Edit: Took me a couple of hours, but this version is much better.

21 Also a Calipede here. Got to the rally at 6:30am, couldn't find the end of the line. Now I'm watching the rally on YouTube from my heated hotel room like a moron. Will head back out in the evening though to help watch over any old Pedes when the odds of AntiFA showing up increases.

11 We'll see if Pence holds the line. More than a few rally attendees have contingency plans in case things need to get shooty.

-1 Unfortunately, your miswording may actually be accurate. They have been holding the line as all our defenses are overrun and each defensive line has been breached. We are literally now in the inner keep fighting for survival and we are still not sure that our generals will fight for us??? Take that in for a second. Normally you would not accept such betrayal even after evidence that they let the first defensive line fall intentionally... yet here we are, people are still talking about being reasonable and maybe we can have a civilized conversation with the invading hordes that have already been raping, pillaging, and plundering our country for decades now.

I for one am extremely concerned that what we are seeing is treasonous leadership that is going to try to save its own hide instead of fight, which yes, is holding the line, just not for any tactical purposes that benefit us. I hope I am wrong for once, but unfortunately I am never wrong about such high level matters. I wish I were and it baffles me that others seem unable to see obvious things ... can't see the forest for all the trees ... worship leadership that has done nothing but shirked and cowered and stood down and "held the line" for four years as we have been overrun even when we are supposedly in power and control. Seriously, do you really feel like things are generally better today than they were in 2015/2016? Communists and Africans are literally burning down the USA and jailing innocent people and persecuting Europeans while artificially empowering and placing communists and africans in positions of power over our own countries and societies all over the planet. They literally just stole the election of the Presidency while "our guy" is President!!!!
